

www.sdccc.org

San Diego Convention Center Chosen as "Exhibitor Pick"

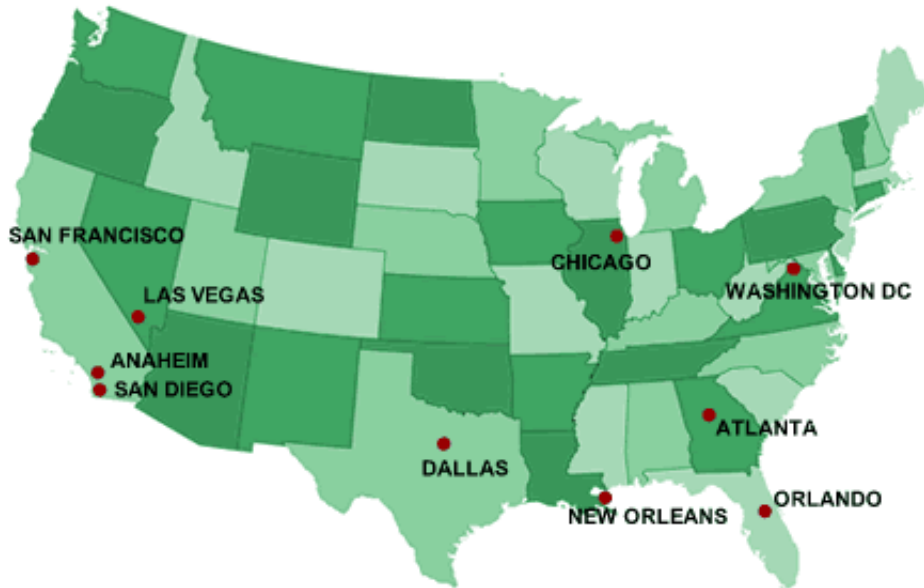

The San Diego Convention Center was selected as one of the top facilities in the country that trade show exhibitors like best.

EXPO Magazine surveyed the Board of Directors of the Trade Show Exhibitors Association asking them to nominate their favorite cities based on ease of use of the convention center, the skill and cost of labor, the affordability of hotels and restaurants, the accessibility of transportation, and convention services.

The San Diego Convention Center was ranked among the best for its superior location, ease of access, and nearby amenities.

All of the other cities named have convention centers larger than San Diego.

BELOW ARE THE TEN CITIES RECOGNIZED BY EXPO MAGAZINE:

For more information about the San Diego Convention Center, visit our web site at www.sdccc.org.

The San Diego Convention Center Corporation is a public benefit corporation that generates nearly $1 billion annually in local economic impact and supports 7,950 jobs countywide. Its occupancy levels are among the highest in the nation.

